Comments from the Club President

Hi Fellow Members,

By the time you receive this wonderful newsletter, it will be January. Christmas and New Year will have happen. I wish you all a Very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. While we figure out our plans for the Winter there was one activity to lay wreaths in December. Before we know it, it will be Spring so never to early to plan a tour. I am thinking of one to Mazomanie. Who knows why but seems like a place to visit. Think of favorite out of way place to eat as seems to be good time to share some stories. I want to thank all those who serve last year and volunteering to serve for this next year. I believe we had a good year but hope we have great 2025!

Tommy

A man approaches a very beautiful women in a large surpermarket and says, “Excuse me, I’ve lost my wife somewhere in this huge market. Can we talk for a minute?” “Why?” she asks. “Because every time I talk to a beautiful lady, my wife suddenly appears out of no where, and I’m tired of looking for her.”

December 14, 2024 Wisconsin Veterans Memorial Cemetery King, WI

The pictured CWC members and friends braved the winter weather, joining several other volunteers to lay wreaths on the graves at the Wisconsin Veterans Memorial Cemetery at King, WI.

Afterwards most of the group, including some CWC members that can no longer climb the hills to lay wreaths, gathered at Schuler's restaurant in Waupaca for lunch. Good food and fellowship.
